Dear EASAR Members, dear Colleagues,

for this year’s 21st EASAR conference, which is organized by the Austrian Public Health Institute - Competence Centre Addiction (www.goeg.at), from May 24th - 27th 2018 we hope to welcome you to Vienna, Austria. Besides an exciting scientific programme, the conference will include a trip to the Otto Wagner Church in Vienna providing also information on the history of psychiatry in Vienna and end at a Winery for dinner.

Conference location and how to reach it:

The conference location at Hotel & Palais Strudlhof, 1090 Vienna, Pasteurgasse 1, http://www.strudlhof.at, is easy to reach by public transport from the airport; one should allow 1.5 hours (More detailed information how to reach the place will be presented later). An airport-taxi costs around 35 Euro from the Airport to anywhere in Vienna. To reach the hotel by taxi takes around 30 to 60 minutes depending on the traffic.

Information for planning:

Welcome dinner on Thursday at 19.00. The conference will end Sunday at 12:00. Sunday dinner, for those not leaving early is scheduled from 12:00 – 13:00

Costs:

The total cost for the conference is 550 Euro. This includes lodging, all breakfast/lunch/dinners, all coffee breaks, evening drinks on Friday, and the trip to the Otto Wagner Church and the Winery on Saturday afternoon.
