

European Association of Substance Abuse Research

The European Association of Substance Abuse Research (EASAR) is a network of leading European research institutes and research supporting agencies which are active in the area of substance related disorders.

The object of the association is to stimulate and strengthen European cooperation in any field of research of abuse of psycho-active substances in order to improve the prevention and treatment and to contribute in this manner to the wellbeing of people.

T he 22nd EASAR Conferene took place in Velence, Hungary, 16-19 May 2019

Main topics were: behavioral addictions, substance use, alcohol use, alcohol and substance use interventions

